Gain the skills and confidence you need to take your practice outdoors

Why take this course

Nature connection is a powerful therapeutic tool for supporting people living with a wide range of mental and physical health conditions. If you are thinking about taking people, young and old, outdoors, either on a one to one basis or in groups, then this course is the best place to start.

This training brings together best practice and theory from nature connection, eco-psychology, embodiment, resilience, mental health and neuroscience to enable working with individuals and groups of all ages.

How you will learn

Through a combination of experiential learning, webinars and online resources, you'll gain the confidence and competence to work with people in a range of outdoor settings.

You'll learn:

- ✓ A therapeutic nature-based model that meets your clients' whole health: mind, body, social and environmental relationships
- ✓ Nature connection, neuroscience and supporting mental health
- ✓ Practical outdoor nature-based skills and activities
- ✓ Adapting activities to a range of green spaces
- ✓ How to be a reflective practitioner
- ✓ Practical skills to minimise risks associated with taking groups in your care outdoors
- ✓ Ways of embodying your own nature based relationships in order to stimulate and balance clients brain body relationships

Who we are

Circle of Life Rediscovery is a multi-award-winning Community Interest Company, transforming education, health and family and supporting people to reach their potential through nature. This course is run by recognised experienced practitioners. We have pioneered green interventions while working with NHS departments – CAMHS, FISS CAMHS, Early Psychosis, Dementia, LACAMHS and more.

Since 2009 CLR has taught teachers, health professionals and outdoor practitioners skills to take educational and therapeutic programmes outdoors. At the same time, we provide nature-centred learning and therapeutic experiences for young people, adults and families in our stunning Sussex woodland site.
